followed the bugling of taps at the fireboat wharf, there was a flash of lightning and a crashing salute, as timely as though the heavens had planned the program. In a choppy sea produced by the first big summer storm of the year, the fireboat then cruised about the river, scattering wreaths and bouquets on the waters which would carry them to the sea, where the heroes honored had gone down.

The services were held under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps and were participated in by civil war veterans, Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, harbor firemen and civilians. Directing the program was a committee consisting of Mrs. Jennie T. Thompson, president of the Department of the Potomac, W. R. C.; W. T. Dorsey of the Grand Army of the Republic; Mrs. Rose Rutledge, president of the Washington auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans; Elizabeth Worrel Ball, patriotic leader, and Miss Elizabeth Buckles of the District and national staff of the W. Health Worry only puts one further "under the weather." Often the best way out is to make a decided change in the daily diet, for sound health is largely a matter of selecting right food.

Active brains and vigorous bodies require wholesome, easily digestible food containing true nourishment, and it must include certain mineral elements, phosphate of potash, etc. These elements-lacking in many foods, but abundantly stored in the field grains-are supplied in splendid proportion in
